

Three re-elected to Clay Board of Directors

Members of Clay Electric Co-operative re-elected three area men to the co-op's board of directors during the organization's 66th Annual Meeting held Thursday, September 2 at Charley Brown Park. Shown with Executive Vice President/General Manager John Meng, left, the re-elected directors are (left to right): Kevin Logan of Edgewood, Frank Herman of Xenia and Neil Gould of Bible Grove.

Clay Electric Co-operative, Inc.

A Touchstone Energy® Cooperative 