Director election ballots to be mailed

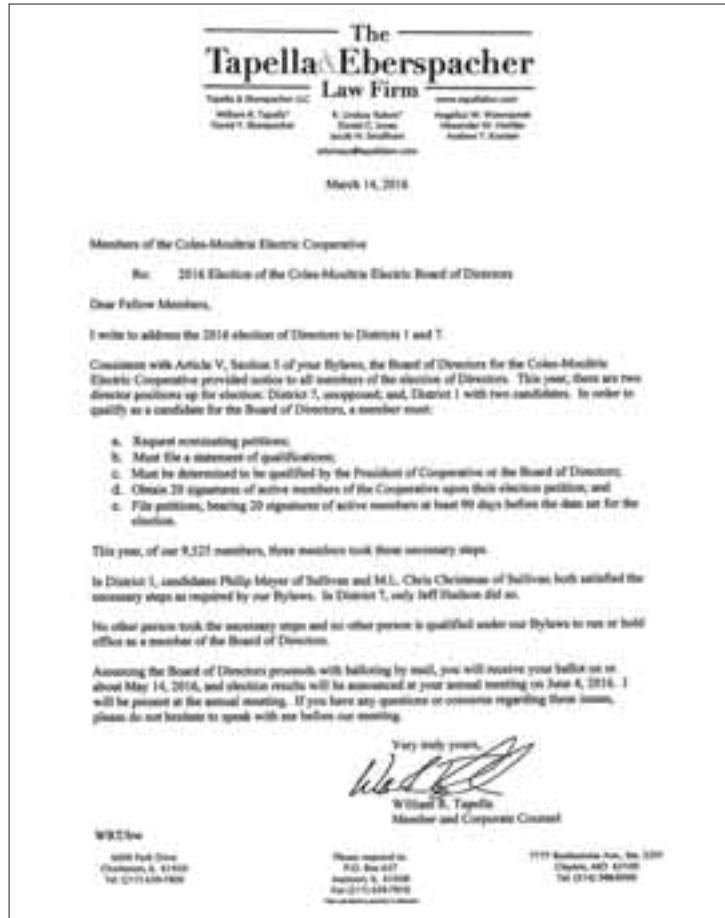

On May 13, 2016, director election ballots will be mailed to all of Coles-Moultrie Electric Cooperative's members/owners. Since District 7 is uncontested, no voting is needed for this district. Jeffery Hudson will be re-elected by acclamation. Two candidates are running for director for District 1. You will need to vote for one candidate in each district. Candidate profiles are printed on page 16D.

In order for your vote to count, you must return your properly executed ballot to the post office box printed on the return envelope by Wednesday, June 1, 2016. Ballots cannot be turned in at the cooperative office. They must be in the post office box printed on the ballot return envelope.

Please carefully follow the instructions that were included with your election ballot to ensure that your ballot counts. After marking each ballot for one candidate, insert the ballots in the ballot envelope. Then insert the ballot envelope into the ballot return envelope. The ballot return envelope is the mailing envelope you use to return your executed ballot to the election post office box.

For your ballot to be processed and counted, you must sign the certification on the ballot return envelope. This certification helps to ensure the integrity of the election. Your signature on this envelope means that, as the member of record, you are the person voting the ballot. During past elections, several members have failed to sign the certification on the ballot return envelope. Therefore, those envelopes were never opened and the ballots were not counted.

On the day the election inspectors count the ballots, the signed certification on all ballot return envelopes is compared to the cooperative's membership list. After completing this process, all ballot envelopes are removed from the ballot return envelopes. Next, all of the ballot envelopes are opened and the ballots removed for counting. Therefore, though you signed the ballot return envelope, this procedure prevents anyone from knowing how you voted.

We hope this explanation will help prevent you from returning your ballot unsigned and, thus, increase member participation in the voting.

Remember, one of your primary responsibilities as a member of this cooperative is voting to elect the directors who in turn, and in your interest, conduct the business and affairs of the cooperative.

Coles-Moultrie Electric Cooperative has been conducting director elections by mail ballot since 1983. The purpose of electing directors by mail ballot is to encourage all members to participate in this democratic process. Prior to 1983, director elections were conducted at the annual meeting. With only a small number of members attending the annual meeting, that same small percentage of the membership was electing the directors. Ballot by mail gives more members the opportunity to select their board of directors.

As an added incentive to return your ballot, the Ballot Return Envelope of each member voting, with the name of the member on it, will be placed in a box for a special drawing by the Election Inspectors. Ten $25 electric bill credits will be given away.

We encourage you to exercise your right as a member of this cooperative by casting your ballot in the 2016 director election. Your mailed ballot must be in the Mattoon Post Office by Wednesday, June 1 to be counted.

Director Election Profiles

The biographical information for these candidates has been provided by the candidates who are solely responsible for the content. Neither the Coles-Moultrie Board of Directors, the officers of the Cooperative, or the staff contributed to these biographies or verified the content.

District #1

Philip Meyer graduated from Quincy University in 1997 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management. He is currently the Senior Lender at Scott State Bank in the Sullivan branch where he has worked since 2011. Prior to 2011, he worked at First National Bank in Mattoon as an Asst. Vice President. Philip has sixteen years of banking and management experience. Philip is currently the Coles-Moultrie Cooperative Board Treasurer and serves as the Chair of the Audit & Finance Committee. He also serves on the Marketing Committee of the Board. He has been a director for three years.

Philip has been married to his wife for 18 years. Vickie, is a Child Care Counselor with Kemmerer Village in Assumption. They have three children. Paisley is a junior at Mattoon High School, John is a freshman at Mattoon High, and Leo is in 5th grade at Riddle Elementary in Mattoon.

Philip was a volunteer coach for city leagues, baseball, softball, and basketball in both Sullivan and Mattoon from 2006-2014 and was a coach for the St. Mary's Co-ed 4th and 5th grade basketball team for two years. He is a current member of the Sigel St. Michael's Knights of Columbus, St. Columcille Church in Sullivan, and the Moultrie County Farm Bureau. He is also a past member of the Mattoon Rotary Club and the Mattoon Chamber Ambassadors where he served as President for two years.

He is an avid sports fan and enjoys travelling to watch his children play. He also enjoys fishing, attending auctions, and completing do-it-yourself building projects with his family.

Philip would like to continue using his financial knowledge to help the members of Coles-Moultrie Electric Cooperative.

M. L. "Chris" Christman is a candidate for District # 1 and resides in Bradford Hills in the rural Sullivan area. He was employed by Coles-Moultrie Electric Cooperative (CMEC) from 1979 until his retirement on May 1, 2015. During his time at CMEC he served several functions beginning as an Apprentice Lineman, then Journeyman Lineman, Field Engineer, Director of Operations, Interim Manager and finally, President and CEO.

While working at the Cooperative he served on several boards of directors, including the former Mattoon Community Red Cross, Coles Together, Mattoon Chamber of Commerce, Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Foundation, Mattoon Area Community Foundation, as well as on advisory boards for the East Central Illinois Development Corporation and Sexual Assault and Counseling Information Service (SACIS).

Further, he served on boards of directors for several Illinois electric cooperative organizations including Prairie Power, Inc. as Secretary/ Treasurer for eight years and was a member of the Association of Illinois Electric Cooperative Managers' Association wherein he was Chairman of the Training and Safety committee and was active on the Memorial Scholarship committee, as well as in Illinois ACRE.

Recently, he was requested to serve as the Interim CEO for A & N Electric Cooperative on the Eastern Shore of Virginia while a management search was conducted to secure a permanent CEO for the 35,000-member electric cooperative.

He and Penny have two daughters and two granddaughters.

His favorite interests include woodworking, reading, golf and spending time with both granddaughters.

District #7

Jeff Hudson was born and raised on a grain and livestock farm north of Charleston. He grew up in one of the first Coles-Moultrie all electric homes. While he was a 4-H member, the Coles-Moultrie Electric Cooperative invited the group to their offices and assisted them in putting together a light fixture. Since then, he has had a deep regard and attachment with rural electrification.

As a Coles-Moultrie Electric Cooperative Board Director, he has served as Secretary, Treasurer and currently serves as Chairman of the Board. During his time on the board, he has assisted in achieving a power supply that will protect co-op members from increased power costs, predicted for the next 30 years.

With his background in management, negotiating, working with leases, contracts, sales, and safety issues, along with an understanding of finances will continue to help the Board immensely. As a Board Member, his first priority is to make the best decisions possible, for the benefit of all members.

Jeff, and his wife Sarah currently live in Charleston, Illinois. They have one son, Nick.

Hudson Agricultural Service is a business formed by Jeff Hudson. He manages farms for landowners, also does farm consulting, and appraisals. He is an Accredited Farm Manager and Rural Appraiser with the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers. He is a real estate broker. He has served in the capacity of an Expert Legal Witness and Court Appointed Receiver. He has worked with insurance companies, such as John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, Travelers Insurance and Prudential Insurance performing farm management, appraising properties and selling real estate.

In 1972, he graduated from the University of Illinois with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Economics. Upon graduation, he worked as an Officer with the Trust Department for Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago. At the National Bank of Bloomington, Ill., he was Vice-President within the Trust Department. Vice-President and Market Manager for Bank of America, performing commercial loans, consumer credit, and providing investment service as a securities 6 licensee. Employed at First Community Bank, in Charleston, as Branch Manager and Commercial Lender. While at Regions Bank, he served as Vice-President and Commercial Lender, responsible for attracting new business through the sale of commercial bank products and services.

Jeff has served as an officer, director or current or past member of the following organizations: Coles County Economic Development Council, Charleston Chamber of Commerce, University of Illinois Extension Board, Coles-Moultrie Electric Cooperative Board, Rotary International-Charleston Club, Coles Together, Charleston Area Economic Development Foundation, Illinois Department of Natural Resources Hunter Safety Education Instructor, Coles County Farm Bureau, Walnut Grove Christian Church, currently a member of Broadway Christian Church, and the Illinois Sheriff's Association.

Jeff's favorite interests are: flying, fishing, assisting with the Mattoon-Charleston 4th of July Fireworks display, helping with the family farm, and spending time with his family.
