

HomE is a home energy efficiency program promoting the installation of insulation and energy efficient heating and cooling systems through financial rebates of up to $1,500 to members of Menard Electric Cooperative. For more information see page 16e or visit our website at www.menard.com

