

January wind and ice can be brutal to the electric system and dangerous to those who work on it. If you have an outage, contact us at 1-800-526-7282 and please be patient. Help is on the way. Line personnel who try to rush outage restoration could make costly mistakes that could hurt them, their co-workers and cooperative members, or worse. Working steady and deliberately means everyone goes home safely each night.

From your local Touchstone Energy® cooperative

Clinton County
Electric Cooperative, Inc.

Your Touchstone Energy® Partner 