Groundbreaking ceremony for Clay Electric

A groundbreaking ceremony was recently held for the new headquarters of Clay Electric Co-operative, Inc. (CECI). Board members of the cooperative, Association of Illinois Electric Cooperatives staff, employees, representatives of Clay County Water and the media were in attendance.

CECI Board President Richard Rudolphi and Ed VanHoose Executive Vice President/General Manager addressed those in attendance and reported that the cooperative board had spent the last four years planning for this day. "The old office building was at the point of spending more money for the repairs than it was worth. We are excited to get the project moving and completed to better serve the members" stated VanHoose.

A new office will be built in the same area as the old office location, and a new parking lot and drive-up window will serve the members much better than the old one. A geothermal HVAC system and much more efficient lighting will also be installed.

In the meantime, a temporary office trailer has been located across the road, to conduct business as usual. The projection for completion will be in early 2019.

CECI thanks the members for their patience during the construction of the new facility.

Local students represent Clay Electric during the nationwide Youth to Washington Tour

What do you get when 71 students from 27 Illinois electric and telephone cooperatives join more than 1,800 of their peers across the United States? You get the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association (NRECA) Youth to Washington Tour.

Five local students represented Clay Electric Co-operative during a trip to Washington, D.C. from June 8-15 as part of the annual Youth Tour.

The students toured Capitol Hill and met with U.S. Senator Dick Durbin and Congressman John Shimkus. The 2018 Youth Tour delegates from Clay Electric included Cali Wilson, Flora H.S.; Congressman Shimkus; Nick Miller, Clay City H.S.; Collin Moseley, Flora H.S.; Vivian Duquaine, Flora H.S.; and Angel Keller, Full Armor Christian Academy of Louisville.

They also visited historical and cultural sites including Arlington National Cemetery, the Supreme Court, Newseum, Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia, a variety of memorials and the U.S. Capitol. Among fun activities the students enjoyed were the Marine Corps Sunset Parade, the Smithsonian Museums and an assembly of Youth Tour participants from across the nation.

During the trip, Collin Moseley was chosen by his peers to represent Illinois on the Youth Leadership Council (YLC) of the NRECA. The YLC is a year-long appointment, and Moseley will represent Clay Electric and the state's cooperatives at national and state meetings and events in the year ahead.

“Youth Tour is a great opportunity that changes these students’ lives,” says Ed VanHoose, executive vice president/general manager of Clay Electric. “This experience helps prepare them for their futures. After touring our nation’s capital, meeting congressional representatives and learning firsthand how our government works, they return home with valuable knowledge and memories that will last a lifetime.”

Since 1964, the nation’s cooperative electric and telephone utilities have sponsored more than 60,000 high school students to visit Washington, D.C. To learn more about the Youth to Washington Tour, go to www.youthtour.coop.

Collin Moseley gives his speech in front of the Illinois Youth Tour participants. He was elected by his peers to represent Illinois as the Youth Leadership Council Representative.

We will be closed on Monday, September 3rd for Labor Day!
