

Make Veterans Day about veterans

Droves of people stand along Main Street with flags waving to the beat of the marching band. They impatiently crane their necks to catch the first glimpse of camouflage uniforms. Suddenly, they see them – weary, yet elated, men and women marching in formation. The sound of cheers, whistles and clapping is deafening. Their mothers, brothers, fathers, sisters and cousins are home from deployment.

This year on Veterans Day, think about the people who have protected this country's virtue. Your freedom has been their sacrifice.
