

PROFILES

Board Candidate Profiles

David Martin

David Martin of Metropolis was selected by the nominating committee to represent Massac County on the board of directors. He is a pharmacist and has been a member of SIEC since 1984. David is a former board of director for the Cooperative and states, "Because of the amount of time necessary to properly represent the members as a board member, I felt I could not give the time required to do the job well. My work situation has changed and I miss representing the members and so am seeking election once again."

He graduated from Metropolis Community High School, then graduated from Paducah Community College with an Associate of Science Degree. David obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Pharmacy from Samford University in Birmingham, Ala.

Having served on the community advisory committee of Massac

Memorial Hospital, David is also a former member of the Metropolis camp of Gideon's International and former member and past president of the Metropolis Rotary Club. He is also a former board member of Southern Illinois Power Cooperative where he served as chairman of the board.

David and wife Lillie have two children, Westly and Gabrielle, and they have two grandchildren, Lily Kate and Reagan. His hobbies include camping, motorcycling, visiting his children and grandchildren, traveling and singing with CrossHarmony, a southern gospel group.

Scott Miller of Tamms was selected by the nominating committee to represent Alexander County on the board of directors. He is a farmer and has been a member of SIEC for 32 years. "If elected, I will do my best to fulfill my duties to serve and represent the members of SIEC," states Scott.

Scott graduated from Egyptian High School. He is a Sunday school teacher and an assistant Sunday school director. He is a member of Farm Bureau and a former Farm Service Agency County Committee Chairman.

Hunting, traveling, snow skiing and spending time with family, are Scott's hobbies. He is married to Cheryl and they have two children, Kristin and Joshua, and three grandsons.

Scott Miller

Carole J. Kelley

Carole J. Kelley of Buncombe was selected by the nominating committee to represent Johnson County on the board of directors. Carole has been serving on the SIEC board since 1999 and is a Credential Certified Board of Director. She has been a member of SIEC for 38 years.

Carole graduated from Vienna High School and obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education from SIU Edwardsville, specializing in math and has a minor in accounting.

Currently, Carole is the Secretary/Treasurer of the Goreville Ministerial Alliance and is a board director for the Southern Illinois Power Cooperative. She is also the director of a local ladies Bible study. Her past activities include being a leader of a church youth group and 4-H Club. She was also a member of the Johnson County Extension board. As an SIEC director, she has held offices as President, Vice President and Secretary.

As a housewife, Carole enjoys gardening, quilting, cooking and outdoor activities. She is married to Allen, and they have four children, Hope, Amber, Brian and John. Carole has eight grandchildren.