

This year, while you're at a festival, parade or family gathering celebrating the Labor Day holiday, take a moment to remember those brave souls who fought for our right to a safer work environment, more comfortable working conditions and better pay and benefits.

Happy Labor Day, and thank you from Spoon River Electric Cooperative.

