

Youth Day for Tomorrow's Leaders

Illinois students representing electric cooperatives met in Springfield to participate in Youth Day. The annual event presented more than 200 of the co-op's future leaders with an opportunity to learn from today's public officials. The day-long event gave students an up-close look at democracy in action and a chance to meet their elected officials. Senators and representatives also had a chance to inspire and encourage the leaders of tomorrow.

R · E · C · C

Your Touchstone Energy® Cooperative

