Entertainment – Edwin Linson

Edwin Linson is an exceptional vocalist with influences ranging from Sam Cooke, Bob Seger and The Allman Brothers to more modern artists such as Marcus King, Chris Stapleton and The Teskey Brothers.

Edwin began his career at 21 with the a cappella group Blend where he spent 2 years honing his vocal ability, and developing his musical taste. With years of experience as a professional musician and entertainer, Edwin has a warm and engaging stage presence that provides an immersive experience.

As of 2019 he began performing as a solo act covering various artists spanning multiple decades performing songs that are rarely heard but widely known.
