Children under the age of 13 are eligible to register for and possibly win one of 10 gift certificates with a value of $25 each. There will also be grand prize drawings for a girl's and boy's bike.

Entertainment and registration will begin at 6 p.m., and the business session begins at 7 p.m. During the business session, members will learn about the cooperative's past year of operation and the ways your cooperative is working to improve the service provided while keeping rates as competitive as possible. In addition, they will be able to participate in the process

Please attend your annual meeting to find out more about your cooperative's distribution operations, including infrastructure investments and maintenance activities in order to provide members with a reliable and cost-effective energy supply. In addition, your cooperative will discuss electric generation industry developments and how important it is to have generation resources available to meet the growing demand for electricity.

See you next month, and as always, "We'll keep the lights on for you."
